Hotel "Brauhaus zum Löwen" is located at Kornmarkt 3 at the very heart of the old town, and is today the only remaining brewery in the district of Unstrut-Hainich. Built in the second half of the sixteenth century, the main hotel building was destroyed in a fire that ravaged the Kornmarkt in the year 1707. It was subsequently rebuilt to its present state between 1707 and 1713, and served as an apothecary in the almost 200 years that followed. The present-day "Brauhaus zum Löwen" ("Lion Brewery") owes its name to the "Löwen-Apotheke" ("Lion Apothecary") housed here in the 20th century. Following German reunification in 1989, the building stood empty for a time.

At least once a week, it is possible to watch the brewmaster preparing the brew. Both lager (Reichsstädtische Pilsener) and dark ale (Apotheker Dunkel) are brewed here in the traditional style – naturally strictly in accordance with the German Beer Purity Law of 1516. The seasonal smoked beer (Rauchbier) and strong dark beer (Weihnachtsbock) also should not go unmentioned. Around 350 kg malt are needed per brew, hence a crane and a great deal of muscle power are used to transfer the malt to the main building's loft several times a year where it is then processed into roasted, sour, Pilsener, Munich, or smoked malt. Over time, the little "Brauhaus zum Löwen" in Mühlhausen has developed into a hotel brewery with seating for 500 that also features a charming beer garden (open April-October) affording views over the church on the Kornmarkt. The hotel comprises a total of 81 tasteful rooms, 3 meeting rooms, a car park, and underground garage.

Welcome to a feel-good atmosphere: where charming half-timbered history meets modernity.

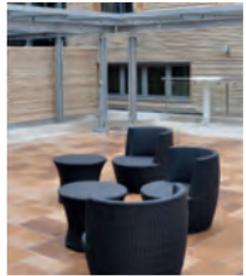

The setting couldn't be more picturesque: the CENTRINUM Altstadt-Hotel is located at the heart of Melsungen's old town, just a short distance from the River Fulda, entirely at one with the rustic flair of the half-timbered house. In 2006, a cluster of listed buildings were carefully converted to a hotel and subsequently expanded in 2010.

A fascinating transition was thus achieved in which the compelling architectural link between tradition and modernity is apparent throughout.

Particular care was taken when furnishing the 22 rooms, which include one apartment. Besides the oak wood flooring, no two rooms are alike. Their charm derives from the harmony of the modern design, stylish furnishings, and historic character of the rooms. Lifts, including one made entirely of glass, enable easy access to all rooms located on the upper floors.

Stylish living is just one of the benefits offered at the CENTRINUM. Another is of a gastronomic nature. Indeed, the culinary team knows how to surprise its guests without overwhelming them. Both local specialities using fine ingredients from the hotel's kitchen garden as well as sophisticated menu creations exuding international flair can be enjoyed here. It is not without reason that the CENTRINUM is also a popular venue for family celebrations.

The CENTRINUM Altstadt-Hotel is actually as popular with holidaymakers (including a great many bicycle and motorcycle tourists) as it is with business travellers. The meeting room features state-of-the-art technology, and can cater to

A haven of hospitality lies behind our hotel's listed, almost 600-year-old walls. Allow yourself to be enchanted by the charming atmosphere that prevails at our historic establishment as well as the outstanding cuisine, and enjoy the many comforts of our individual rooms. The lovingly restored mill house is divided into four separate rooms and two landscaped terraces. The hotel integrated into this space just a few years ago affords a total of 14 rooms.

Each of our rooms provides the perfect unique accommodation for an unforgettable stay. Centrally-located in the Darmstadt-Offenbach-Frankfurt triangle, the "Alte Bergmühle" is the ideal setting for all kinds of events.

In 950 AD, Emperor Otto I designated the area around Dreieich a hunting ground. The first imperial bailiff, Eberhard von Hagen, managed the game and timber-rich forests with his team of 36 gamekeepers. A number of mills were built along Hengstbach stream, including the Bergmühle, which was first mentioned in official records in 1422. The mill succumbed to fire during the Thirty Years' War, but was subsequently rebuilt. The Bergmühle, which is verifiably the oldest residence of the Holzmann family (1675), came to the family through marriage. One of the descendants was Philipp Holzmann. Born in 1805 he made a name for himself with the construction of railways, bridges, and tunnels. In 1969, this piece of history reminding of times long past was restored, with care taken to retain original building elements. Thus more than 20 generations since its construction, the "Alte Bergmühle" today once again serves guests, who can look forward to first-rate hospitality in traditional surroundings.

Welcome to the Landgasthof Neubauer!

Located on the outskirts of idyllic Seligenstadt, we invite you to relax and indulge in a familial atmosphere. We have pursued the philosophy of marketing quality products from controlled regional businesses since we first opened our hotel back in 1992. Short transport routes, direct processing and short maturing times (e.g. for meat) are just a few of our establishment's characteristics that are greatly appreciated by our guests.

A total of 17 rooms are currently available, with seating for 90 in the hotel restaurant, a further 70 in the summer garden and up to 150 in the event barn (only available in the summer). The restaurant, summer garden, and event barn can all easily be accessed by wheelchair users. Parking directly in front of the hotel and bicycle storage facilities are also among the complimentary services we offer.

In January 2014, the country hotel's offerings were complemented with "Genuss-Reich" featuring a further ten rooms and "DIE SCHEREREI" hairdressing salon. Barrier-free access and a lift ensure wheelchair users also enjoy a pleasant stay.

Restaurant opening hours:

The centuries-old "Bäck-Schwarz" guest house is located at the heart of Altensteig's historic old town. It is one of the oldest businesses in Germany. The restaurant's original low ceilings and door frames can prove something of a challenge for taller guests. The saying here is "Riabl aiziage sonscht hauschd de Meggl nah" ["Keep your head down, else you'll hit it!"]. Treat yourself and a loved one to a romantic meal for two at one of the sturdy inn tables, or enjoy a convivial few hours with a sociable group. The tiled stove ensures cosy warmth during the winter months.

The year-round motto here is "A guest among friends". Smaller Swabian dishes are served here, lovingly prepared by the warm-hearted landlady. Allow yourself to be charmed by the unique rustic flair that prevails at the "Bäck-Schwarz". When you have been here once, you will return time and time again – guaranteed!

Where history meets zeitgeist

Guests are treated to upmarket 4-star service and familial hospitality at the Parkhotel Jordanbad in Upper Swabian Biberach – “half way” between the city of Ulm and Mediterranean-like Lake Constance, so to speak.

It is perhaps unsurprising that the Parkhotel and Jordanbad thermal baths are located exactly here, amidst pretty, sprawling parklands featuring ancient mighty trees within a short distance of the historic old town: they were designed and built to enable indulgence and health benefits, and to allow guests to rediscover themselves.

The atmosphere fosters excellent conversations, creates the ideal setting for relaxed meetings, and offers an idyllic venue for memorable celebrations with your family and friends.

The team has set itself the goal of impressing guests time and time again with new ideas, and sincere and authentic hospitality.

With its sprawling sauna offerings, the Jordanbad thermal baths covers a total of 9,000 m² and forms the centrepiece of the hotel complex. The restorative effects of the hot thermal waters (47°C) can be enjoyed in seven different pools. A play of lights and underwater music in the largest of the thermal pools guarantees a relaxing bathing experience.

The saltwater pool uses the healing powers of salt from the Dead Sea, complemented with soothing massages on the bubble seats. Alternating scents in the aroma pool will leave you dreaming, and it is also possible to relax in the spring source at a temperature of 39°C.

Highly-qualified staff provide treatments in cooperation with the adjacent wellness centre.

The Gasthof zum Bären is the oldest hotel in Meersburg; indeed, based on excavation finds, it is believed to date from 1250 AD.

The year 1605 is engraved in the camber above the Renaissance gateway featuring five angels' heads. It was in this year that the guest house was extended to its present-day size. A further building was added beside the city gate some 75 years later, in 1680. When the Thurn-und-Taxis Post established a postal service between Lindau and Constance in September 1688, the Bären became a stagecoach stop, heralding the start of a heyday for the guest house. In the 200 years that followed, the Bären played host to stagecoach travellers. Today the building that served as stables is used as a garage.

It was only in 1960 that the hotel was again extended: the half-timbered building dating from 1590 and renovated in 1756 was purchased and joined with the Bären. Room 27 featuring an original wooden cassette ceiling is of particular interest to fans of half-timbered buildings.

The Bären was purchased by the final postmaster, Engelbert Keller, in 1851, and has been owned by the Keller-Karrer-Gilowsky family ever since.

Today a total of 20 rooms are available to our guests, all of which come with a shower, WC, telephone, Wi-Fi, and flat-screen TV.

We look forward to your visit!

Welcome to the "Engel" guest house

Tradition is very important to us, the owners of Hotel Engel in Sasbachwalden. One of the reasons for this is that our hotel and restaurant forms part of a cluster of listed buildings situated at the very heart of the Ortenau region in the flower and wine village of Sasbachwalden. The beautiful half-timbered façade testifies to the building's history dating back to 1764.

We offer personal service in our family-run hotel that looks back on over 200 years of tradition. Son-in-law and head chef Christian Mamber is responsible for our restaurant's culinary signature, and treats guests to hearty regional dishes as well as fine gourmet dishes that harmonise perfectly with the excellent local wines.

Comfortable accommodation and personal service ensure the perfect conditions for family celebrations, sociable get-togethers, and successful corporate functions.

Find peace and relaxation afterwards in our modern, comfortable rooms.

Countless popular day trip destinations await after a leisurely gourmet breakfast, including the Black Forest, sunny Baden Wine Route, and nearby Alsace.

Look forward to eventful days full of indulgence in fabulous surrounds amidst the vineyards.

We look forward to welcoming you to Hotel Engel!

Warm wishes from your hosts,
Herbert Decker and family,

We offer exquisite fresh regional cuisine with French and Mediterranean influences. We mostly work with products from the local region and even have an in-house butcher. Guests to our restaurant additionally have the option of staying in one of the 12 rooms in our little country hotel.

Our entire restaurant and kitchen underwent extensive renovation in 2009. A wonderful terrace is also available from which stunning views can be enjoyed over the steep vineyards in the Rosswager Halde winegrowing area, as well as a number of the old half-timbered houses in Rosswag.

Our culinary offerings are complemented by a first-class selection of regional wines and premium German vintages, which meanwhile number over 300. Our love of German wines prompts us to continually seek out exciting new wines – indulgence that we gladly wish to pass on to our guests to complement our varied dishes.

This is not only a great honour, but also motivates us to pursue our approach! It would be a pleasure to welcome you to the picturesque wine village of Rosswag, and to treat you to a selection of the delicacies from our kitchen and cellar.

Warm wishes from your hosts,
